

A mother for Alice Ann His little girl thinks Melissa should be her nanny. After all, she's kind, pretty and she smells nice. Gregory isn't entirely convinced that those are the best qualifications to care for his precious daughter, but he's prepared to give Melissa a chance. Alice Ann is so sweet and her father is so helpless that Melissa's heart melts. It doesn't hurt that Gregory is a very attractive man...But Melissa is looking for Something Big that will change her life. She won't discover it while she's looking after Gregory and his little girl – will she?
